

Supervisor Romaine and Town Board Show Their Support for Stony Brook University Cancer Center's Breast Cancer Awareness Month Activities

posted on 10/3/2013 1:39:29 PM

October 3, 2013

Pictured left to right are Councilwoman Kathleen Walsh, Councilman Steve Fiore-Rosenfeld, Councilwoman Jane Bonner, Renee M. Wolanski, Stony Brook Cancer Center Patient Advocate, Supervisor Ed Romaine, Councilman Dan Panico, Councilwoman Connie Kepert and Councilman Tim Mazzei.

Farmingville, NY - At the October 1 Town Board meeting, Supervisor Ed Romaine presented a proclamation to Renee M. Wolanski, Stony Brook Cancer Center Patient Advocate, in honor of its Breast Cancer Awareness Month program of activities that foster understanding and raises funds for treatment and research. During the month of October, the Cancer Center has scheduled events for patients, their families and the community, that provide the opportunity to learn more about prevention and the care and treatment available at Stony Brook. The following is a list of activities:

- All October - Pizza for a Cure

Cara Mia in Sound Beach will donate $1 for every pizza sold.

- Oct. 7 - Cut for a Cure

Treat yourself to a new hairstyle at Legends Hair Designs in Stony Brook Village - (631) 751-0830. All proceeds support cancer patients at Stony Brook University Hospital.

- Oct. 10 - Community Update on Breast Cancer

Hear the latest information on breast cancer, including the latest treatment options. Educational exhibits are also presented to promote breast health awareness.

- Oct. 12 - Pink Glove Dance Video Competition

Beginning October 12 and through October 26, Stony Brook Medicine's Pink Glove Dance video will be posted on www.pinkglovedance.com, along with other videos. Place your votes daily, as the top three winners receive $10,000, $5,000 and $2000 toward the breast cancer charity of their choice.

- Oct. 13 - Wellness for a Cure

Satya Yoga & Pilates in Mt. Sinai - (631) 828-5996 will donate time and talent to raise funds for Stony Brook cancer patients, 12 noon to 3:30 pm.

- Oct. 14 - Walk for Beauty

A fundraiser to support breast cancer research at Stony Brook University. This year's Community Honoree is Patrick Parent of Selden, owner of Legends Hair Designs and Day Spa, which has participated in "Cut for a Cure" for the past four years. Barbara Meringolo of Stony Brook is the Breast Cancer Survivor Honoree.

- Oct. 14 - Cut for a Cure

Treat yourself to a new hairstyle at Arame Hair Salon in Port Jefferson - (631) 331-6633. All proceeds support cancer patients at Stony Brook University Hospital.

- Oct. 15 - Go Pink for a Cure

Pink hair extensions will be sold in 19 North Waiting Room at Stony Brook University Hospital, 10 am to 2 pm.

- Oct. 17 - Go Pink for a Cure

Pink hair extensions will be sold in Student Activities Center main campus, 12 noon - 2 pm.

- Oct. 18 - Fall Fashion Festival

Cancer fundraiser dinner, basket auction and fashion show. Proceeds benefit Stony Brook cancer patients.

- Oct. 20 - Jump for a Cure

Take an air dive and raise funds for Stony Brook cancer patients. Visit www.skydivelongisland.com or call (631) 208-3900 for rates. Skydive Long Island, Calverton - 8 am until dusk.

- Oct. 22 - Massage Happy Hour

Local medical massage staff donate time and talent to raise funds for Stony Brook cancer patients - Cancer Center, 12 noon - 2 pm.

- Oct. 28 - Massage a Thon

Exhale Medical Massage in Stony Brook - (631) 605-1968 will donate time and talent to raise funds for Stony Brook cancer patients, 12 noon - 5 pm.

- Date TBD - You've Been Flocked

Mt. Sinai cheerleaders will flock the Cancer Center lawn.

Stony Brook University Cancer Center is Suffolk County's cancer care leader and a leader in education and research. With more than 20,000 inpatient and outpatient visits annually, the Cancer Center includes 12 multidisciplinary teams: Breast Cancer; Colorectal Cancer; Gynecologic Oncology; Head, Neck and Thyroid Oncology; Lung Cancer; Melanoma; Neurologic Oncology; Pediatric Hematology/Oncology; Sarcoma; Stem Cell Transplantation and Hematologic Malignancy; Upper Gastrointestinal Oncology; and Urologic Oncology. The cancer program is accredited by the American College of Surgeons Commission on Cancer as a Teaching Hospital Cancer Program and received the Commission's Outstanding Achievement Award. The Carol M. Baldwin Breast Care Center is the first center in New York State to be accredited by the National Accreditation Program for Breast Centers. To learn more visit www.cancer.stonybrookmedicine.edu .

Division of Public Information * Office of the Supervisor

One Independence Hill • Farmingville • NY 11738 • Phone (631) 451-6595 • Fax (631) 451-6258